FAITH.
BY GEORGE SANTAYANA.

[George Santayana, who is assistant professor of philosophy at Harvard, was born at Madrid, Spain, Dec. 16, 1863, and is of Spanish descent. He was educated at Harvard, Berlin, and Cambridge. He was appointed Hyde lecturer at the Sorbonne, Paris, five years ago, and is the writer of many poems, as well as of certain books on philosophy.]

O World, thou choicest not the better part!
It is not wisdom to be only wise,
And on the inward vision close the eyes,
But it is wisdom to believe the heart.
Columbus found a world, and had no chart,
Saw one that faith deciphered in the skies;
To trust the soul's invisible surmise
Was all his science and his only art.
Our knowledge is a torch of smoky pine
That lights the pathway but one step ahead
Across a void of mystery and dread.
Bid, then, the tender light of faith to shine
By which alone the mortal heart is led
Unto the thinking of the thought divine.

Give us your job work.

Good morning! Have you noticed the court square?

Miss Eula Langley spent Sunday in Central City with her parents.

Needles for all sewing machines at Roark's.

Sunday closing is now in general effect, all stores being ordered closed.

Summer almost half gone, and this begins to look like a no-circus year.

See Corlette, the coal man, before you buy coal.

Mr. Paul Pannell has returned from a two weeks' visit to relatives in Franklin.

A carload of western horses, the first shipment here in some time, is being sold this week.

Get potted plants and cut flowers from Miss Lena Arnold.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Miller are spending several days in Madisonville with relatives.

Mr. W. H. Brizendine spent Sunday in Owensboro with his brother, Mr. Marcellus Brizendine.

Typewriter ribbons, all machines, at Roark's.

Freight receipts here have at last shown a slight decrease, but the volume is still heavy for the season.

Mr. S. D. McGee and family, of Slocum, Ala., are here on a visit to the family of Rev. J. H. James.

Telephone No 5 and your laundry will be called for and delivered.

Is the voice of the lake and woods calling, calling, and the vacation feeling over you stealing, stealing?

The rain, wind and hail Sunday afternoon did some damage to trees, blowing off limbs and uprooting several.

Call on Leslie Hale, next to First National Bank, for candies, books, sundries, cigars, tobacco, etc.

Thomas Salsbury, a well known young colored man, died at his home south of town last Friday, and was buried Saturday afternoon.

THE RECORD 50c. per year.

"Back to the Land" is making an impression on many minds.

Messrs. Shaver & Kimmel have added a grist mill to their plant, and will soon be ready to grind corn.

Nothing finer in the way of summer weather than that we have been getting this week could be desired.

Give your job printing orders to THE RECORD.

The cleaning up of the court square would almost make it unanimous, in the metropolitan section.

It has been 'fally' weather this week, but that is much better than the falling weather of the past few weeks.

See the Rockwell corner dust shield at Roark's.

Dawson Springs, it is reported, is rapidly filling with summer resorters. That being the case they should boil the water.

Mr. J. W. Lam is to improve the Old Inn property by having a concrete pavement laid along the Main-cross street side.

Out of coal? Telephone 232-2, for quick service and good coal.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Martin and family, of Paducah, have been spending some days here with relatives and friends.

Mr. Dorris James, of Pinkneyville, Ills., arrived last Saturday, and will make a visit of some days to his parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. H. James.

For first-class livery service, including closed carriages, call on Barbour Head.

The electric light plant was out of commission a short while Saturday morning, caused by rainstorm, but the damage was quickly repaired.

Carload shipments of ice from our plant are still the rule, and this business is being handled without the least interference with local and country demands.

See the very latest thing in carpet sweepers at Roark's.

It is likely that we are to have a laundry, as the matter is being investigated by a practical man who desires to locate here. The enterprise should prove a profitable one.

A man who claims to have figured it up declared that we have almost eight miles of concrete pavement and walks in this city. This is a greater amount than many cities of 10,000 in the state have.

Orders for cut flowers will receive the prompt attention of Miss Lena Arnold.

Messrs. Jarvis & Williams, have just installed a National Cash Register of the latest design, and are now in position to make special close prices on cash deals, just to see the machine work.

Stump-sucking horses are rather common, but perhaps most of our readers have never heard of a stump sucking hog. Bob Jackson reports that he knows of one that was recently sold in his neighborhood.

Orien L. Roark buys, sells, rents, repairs typewriters, carries supplies of all kinds, and solicits trade in any branch.

Lovell-Baynes Marriage.

Miss Irene Lovell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lovell, of this city, and Mr. Frank Baynes, of Louisville, were united in marriage by pastor H. W. Burwell, in the parsonage of the First Presbyterian church at Paducah at 9:30 o'clock last Friday morning. The wedding was a complete surprise to our people, the elopement being well planned. Miss Lovell left here supposedly to join her sister and some friends at Dawson Springs, but was joined by Mr. Baynes at Nortonville and went on to Paducah. The bride is one of the bright and attractive members of our younger set, and the groom has made many friends during his short stay here. He is a traveling salesman in this territory for the grocery firm of Ouerbacker, Gilmore & Co., of Louisville, and a hustling young business man. The couple are in Louisville, but will return the latter part of the week, and probably make their home here. Congratulations and best wishes are being extended from all quarters.

Postmaster Miller Gets $100 Raise.

The report of Postmaster Miller for the year ending June 30 showed receipts of more than $4,200, and this was sufficient increase for a raise of $100 in salary, which the government granted. This office grows constantly, and in sufficient volume to cause an increase in the postmaster's salary of $100 about every two years. When Mr. Miller took charge of the office about 11 years ago the salary was $1,100, and there has, by this last increase, been a raise of $500 in the salary.

Is it cooking coal you want? Call 232-2, and have it delivered at $1.50 per load.

The Hopkins Fair is being held this week at Madisonville, and will draw many Muhlenbergers.

Building operations are just a little slack at the present, but some important ventures are being contemplated.

It is getting to be a tad, this concrete pavement movement. And it is one of the most creditable facts that has struck any town.

Greatest labor saver ever invented can be seen at Roark's.

Mr. H. E. Farley is corresponding with a first-class shoe maker, and will probably add this department to his harness shop.

Mr. W. A. Nesbit, aged 77 years, died at his home in Madisonville from a complication of ailments last Saturday. He was one of the leading citizens of the county, and one of the wealthiest men in western Kentucky.

The I. C. will run a special excursion train to Paducah, leaving here on Tuesday, Aug. 3, at 2:25 p. m., returning leaving Paducah at 10 p. m. Wednesday. The round trip rate from this point is $1.50, with corresponding low rates from all stations.

If you want job printing, give this office your order for prompt delivery.

Prospecting work is being done by a crew on the 4,000-acre tract of land recently purchased by Mr. W. A. Wickliffe. The land is rich in coal, and holes are being sunk to decide the best point of making the opening, which will be on the I. C. near Nelson.

There are a few flagrant violators of the order to cut weeds and clean up premises, and the authorities should get after the offenders. Some of the spots are right in the heart of town, near the churches and other buildings that should be kept in sanitary attractive condition.

Get Hampton's magazine and THE RECORD for the price of the magazine alone.

Mr. H. T. Reed, who has been in China for several years, engaged in missionary work in a school maintained by the M. E. church, South, is expected here, where he will join his wife, who returned a few months ago. Mr. Reed has done excellent work, and has had the fullest support of his wife in all his efforts; they have been given a release, so that they may rest and visit relatives and friends, and it is likely that they will return to the foreign field.

That Weed Ordinance.

Several days ago there was issued an order from the mayor directing property owners to cut weeds and generally put their premises in sanitary conditions. To do its part, the marshal has had a crew of men, and the alleys and neglected public places have had attention. The effect has been almost completely gratifying, and would have been entirely so but for the fact that a few individuals have failed to pay the slightest heed to the order, or the improvements going on around them. Trusting that these few remarks, etc.

Sunday Closing Obeyed.

The ordinance against the opening of stores was put into effect last Sunday. For several years this law has existed, but lately there has been a disposition on the part of a few persons to keep their places open, and the thing has grown, hence the orders of the mayor to the police force to see that all stores and shops shall be kept closed on Sunday. Last Sunday the order was generally obeyed.

Hubert, the nine months' old son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Penrod, died of dysentery at their home near water works park yesterday, and will be buried today.

Stair carpet fasteners and corner dust shields at Roark's. All finishes in stock.

Work will soon be started on the Sunday-school room of the Methodist church, the building committee having decided to have the work done under their supervision, after having had some bids submitted. It is believed that a substantial saving can thus be made.

Mr. Berney Shutt left the first of the week for Earlinton, where he has accepted a position with the L. & N. railroad company. He passed the examination and went to work Tuesday morning. He will be in the train service, and starts as a fireman. His many friends hope he may make rapid progress.

Give Miss Lena Arnold your laundry; she represents Metcalfe, of Greenville is the concrete town in this state.

It is reported that the I. C. railroad will reduce the grade just west of the station here. On account of the curve and grade combined, it is a hard matter to start heavy freight and passenger trains. Frequently it is necessary to back down the track, to get a start sufficient to pull trains out of here.

Mr. D. U. Poole is doing the grading for the concrete pavement that will be built in front of the Humphrey addition, near the depot. This plot of ground will prove an attractive section, and lots will doubtless bring prices showing new values in real estate, which is jumping by great leaps all over town.

Hot and cold baths day and night and Sunday until 10:30 a. m. at Sam Ree Martin's barber shop.

Mrs. Callie Smith, wife of Mr. George Smith, of Mad River, was examined before Judge Rice Tuesday afternoon, and a jury adjudged her to be of unsound mind, and directed that she be taken to Hopkinsville for treatment. It is thought that she will soon be restored, as her condition is brought about by physical ailments which it is hoped will soon be corrected.

Court square, which should be an example and incentive to every man in town and the county, by being kept in the best possible condition, is very much of an eye-sore, and detracts greatly from the attractive building. The lot should be cleaned, graded and sodded, trees planted, and made an artistic, inviting spot.

Disinfecting has been done by Roark all over the county, and calls from near and far are answered promptly. The charges are reasonable.

Mr. Wm. Bader, our foreman, who spent several days last week in Louisville, New Albany and Jeffersonville with relatives and friends, saved a small child from being run down on the streets of Louisville. A small girl had wandered away from home, and toddled into the street a street car and a cart both appearing, thus confusing the child, when Mr. Bader, seeing the peril rescued the baby.

Roark has Rockwell corner dust shield, one of the neatest and most practical items on the market.

No More Drinks on Trains.

The new law making it a heavy offense for carrying or drinking whisky on trains is having a noticeable effect for the better, as the trainmen now have police power, and are enforcing the law. Several people have been made to throw bottles and jugs of whisky out the windows between here and Central City, as the train men gave them alternative, or being turned over to the authorities. Until recently conditions have been dangerous on these trains, at times.

Get in the band wagon; cut weeds.

Interest in the approaching county teachers' institute is growing.

Miss Pearl Rice, of Auburn, Ills., is here on a visit to relatives and friends.

Wallpaper at 5 cents per roll and up, in combinations of sidewalls, border and ceiling, at Roark's.

This is the concrete age, and Greenville is the concrete town in this state.

Miss Flossie Tinsley, of Central City, has been here with the family of Mr. W. H. DeWitt on a short visit.

Mrs. Mattie Bellar, of Tampa, Fla., who has been here for some days on a visit to her mother, Mrs. W. H. DeWitt, will return to her home the latter part of the week.

Put air-cushion tops on your typewriter keys. Roark has them; call and see what you are missing by not using them.

The weed fighting crusade continues, and at the present rate of progress the conflict will result in the next ten days in the extermination of every weed in town. So may it be.

Carrie Caruth Ford, the 15 month old girl baby of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ford, died at their home, five miles south of town, last Saturday, of flux, and burial was at Friendship Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Have you a ring or other jewelry, some silverware, cane, umbrella or other item that you want engraved? Take it to Roark, and the work will be done quickly, in best manner.

The fiscal court has been in session a few days this week, planning road improvements, and other matters, and sold a 37 acre section of the county farm to the W. G. Duncan Coal Co. at a price of $15 per acre.

The councilmen are considering the purchase of a battery of goats, to help property owners in keeping down the weeds, removing tin cans, wire, broken crockery, glassware, and the like. Do you need one? Put in your application at once.

Mattie, wife of Mr. F. D. Hancock, in her 56th year, died at her home two and a half miles south of town at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, after an illness of about a year from tuberculosis. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. H. Woodson at the home at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and interment was in the Crittenden graveyard. The husband and five children survive, and have the sympathy of many friends.

CITY ORDINANCES.

An ordinance to improve a portion of the pavements on the East and West side of Main street in the City of Greenville, Ky.

The City Council of the City of Greenville, Kentucky, do ordain as follows:

That concrete pavements shall be made and constructed on the East side of Main street in the City of Greenville in front of the lots owned by the following persons and for the following distances, to-wit: R. T. Martin, 94 1/2 ft.; C. E. Martin, 20 ft.; Mrs. Lou Grundy, 64 ft.; W. L. Phillips, 21 1/2 ft.; B. C. Mayhugh, 24 ft.; and J. R. Mahugh, 24 ft. to Russell alley, and on the west side of said street beginning at Russell alley, J. R. Mayhugh, 25 ft.; and T. C. O'Bryan, 82 1/2 ft. to the property of J. W. Lam, et al.

Sec. 2. Said pavements shall be made and constructed in accordance with the ordinances of the City of Greenville now in force and effect, and shall be done at the cost of the owners of the ground fronting said improvements as provided by law.

Sec. 3. Said pavements shall be constructed of good and substantial concrete, done in a neat and workmanlike manner, shall be 9 ft. wide and of the dimensions, material, and in the manner provided by the laws and ordinances of the City of Greenville as aforesaid.

Sec. 4. The owners of the lots herein before mentioned shall be given 30 days from the publication of this ordinance in THE RECORD in which to complete this work. In the event of their failure to do so, the contract for such paving will be after the publication of one advertisement in THE RECORD, let to the lowest bidder as provided by law.

Approved July 11, 1910.
J. W. LAM, Mayor,
ORLEN L. ROARK, Clerk.

Miss Lena Arnold handles cut flowers and potted plants, and will appreciate orders, which will have best attention.

Said by Twain.

A young lady once asked Mark Twain if he liked books for Christmas gifts. "Well, that depends," drawled the great humorist. "If the book has a leather cover it is really valuable as a razor strop. If it is a brief, concise work, such as the French write, it is useful to put under the short leg of a wobbly table. An old fashioned book with a clasp can't be beat as a missile to hurl at a dog; and a large book, like a geography, is as good as a piece of tin to nail a broken pane of glass." On the question of the practicability of prohibition, he expressed his views on another occasion as follows: "I am a friend of temperance, and I want it to succeed, but I don't think prohibition is practical. The Germans, you see, prevent it. Look at them. They have just invented a method of making brandy out of sawdust. Now what chance will Prohibition have when a man can take a ripswag and go out and get drunk with a fence rail? What is the good of prohibition if a man is able to make brandy mashes out of the shingles of his roof, or if he can get the delirium tremens by drinking the legs off the kitchen table."

Just the thing for the corners of rooms and for stairways is the Rockwell dust shield. See it at Roark's.
